

With the sway of a market's advantage; with prices hammered down to the most shrunken pittance by the hard labor of scienced employees, scattered over the civilized world; with service and accommodations of universal benefit, and every individual good in the ordinary gait of business routine nothing short of marvellous realizations in the price-h lps need be looked for when with its wise losing for betterment of stocks, is determined by Rich values—prize-worthy merchandise. Even the hundreds of matchless, every-day bargains slip from to partake of their share of the booty. Prices are made for the quickest of selling, often without any regard to the cost of importation or manufacture.

INVENTORY MERCHANDISE is registered to be sold at a price, for this reason. Goods purchased on this occasion are not exchangeable unless damaged or otherwise accidentally misrepresented.
